PUBLIC LIBRARY

From the Director

Happy New Year! We are so excited about what we have planned for you and your family in 2024.

Our popular Cozy Winter Read challenge is back and will last through January 31. Snuggle up with a warm drink and your favorite blanket to enjoy a good book. Record 300 minutes of time spent reading in the Beanstack app and you'll be entered to win the grand prize – a basket full of cold weather goodies. When you record additional minutes, your chances of winning improve. Just for signing up, you receive a cute little snowflake bag just the right size for two new bestsellers with a colorful pair of warm socks tucked inside to wear when reading on a cold winter afternoon.

For the creative writers out there, we are hosting our annual Short Story Contest. Entries will be accepted through January 31. Check our website for all the contest details.

In January, we will offer the first of our Senior Café gatherings. Check the article in this newsletter for times, dates, and places. Visit the Library with your friends to play fun games, enjoy some coffee and snacks, and participate in lively conversations. You may even meet some new friends. We hope you enjoy these times set aside especially for you.

February is Library Lovers Month. Visit the library to check out some books, magazines, movies, and audiobooks to enjoy your favorite pastime – reading. It's our favorite pastime, too. When you visit the library, we will give you a small prize in celebration of Library Lovers Month.

Wow! All this in the first two months of the year! Check our website for information about other exciting programs happening in January and February that include wreath-making, yoga, escape rooms, and a visit from author Bill Fowler, who bicycled across the country – just to name a few.

We hope to see you soon!

Christine Wick
Library Director

Senior Café

Share activities and conversations with old friends while making new ones. Library staff will have interesting games for you to play along with beverages and snacks. Over time, you and your friends may very well want to help plan new activities.

COZY WINTER READ

The popular Cozy Winter Read challenge is back! The program runs January 1st through January 31st. Winter is a great season to spend time reading for the sheer joy of it. Don't forget to visit the library in person or online for that new bestseller you've been wanting to read.

Record 300 minutes of time spent reading in the Beanstack app, and you'll be entered to win the grand prize – a basket full of winter goodies. Your chances of winning increase as you read and enter more minutes.

For signing up, you will receive a cute little snowflake bag. Tucked inside the bag you will find a pair of warm fuzzy socks for those cozy winter reads! Bethel guests should pick up their prizes at another branch during renovations.

SPRING INTO READING

The readers have spoken! Due to the interest in Library reading programs (the recent Hallow-Read program had more than 3,000 participate) a new challenge is being added in the spring. The Library will host Spring into Reading during April. This reading challenge will follow the same guidelines as Hallow-Read and Cozy Winter Read – read and log 300 minutes in the Beanstack app to be entered to win a grand prize. Watch for more details in the next Library Insider.

2024 READING CHALLENGE LINE UP:

- Cozy Winter Read – January
- Spring into Reading – April
- Summer Reading – June and July
- Hallow-Read – October

February is for Library Lovers

We love books and our guests at the Clermont County Public Library...

We also love fun facts. To celebrate, here are four fun facts about libraries:

- The most overdue library book in the world was the one that was returned after 122 years.
- A philanthropist named Andrew Carnegie donated $60 million in the early 20th century to open more than 1,689 public libraries worldwide.
- The Library of Congress in the U.S. is the largest library in the world, with more than 168 million items.
- The most stolen book in the world is the "Guinness Book of World Records."
- Visit a Clermont County Public Library branch in February and receive a small prize to help us celebrate libraries!

Do you like to write SHORT STORIES?

Consider entering your story in the Library's annual Short Story Contest. It's open to original, unpublished short stories between 1,000 and 2,500 words that are suitable for a general audience. First-, second-, and third-place winners will be chosen in the Teen (ages 11-17) and Adult (18 and over) categories. For complete contest information, visit <https://clermontlibrary.org/announcing-libraries-short-story-contest/>.

EVERYONE HAS A STORY... Unleash yours!

Staff Picks for Adults

Hazards of Time Travel

by Joyce Carol Oates

FICTION

Dystopian time travel mixed with college life, which is perfect, really, as a combination.

Laurie H. – Miami Township Branch

Dune

by Frank Herbert

FICTION

As someone who rarely reads sci-fi, I have to say that Dune by Frank Herbert was a pleasant surprise. The audiobook is really well done.

Danielle Massett – Collection Services

A House With Good Bones

by T. Kingfisher

ADULT FICTION

I couldn't put this book down. It had turns at the end I did not see coming (though I tried to predict it). It read smoothly, the characters were tangible, and my love of the "slow burn" story line, when it comes to eerie plots, was satisfied.

Jax K. – Union Township Branch

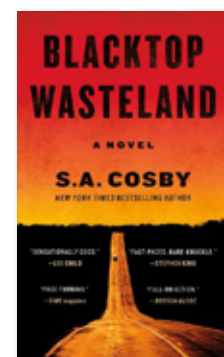

Morning in this Broken World

by Katrina Kittle

HISTORICAL FICTION

A new novel set during the first lock down of COVID in 2020. I'm really invested in the characters; they're so vivid and well developed. It really feels like there is a point of view for everyone!

Lily Petrey – Goshen Branch

Blacktop Wasteland

by S.A. Cosby

ADULT FICTION

A contemporary thriller about a family man trying to stay on the straight and narrow, but after financial troubles strike, he'll do one last job to save his family. It may end up costing him more than it's worth. S.A. Cosby really knows how to write complex characters with their own unique sound.

Jadrien Douglas – Williamsburg Branch

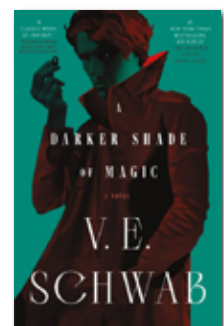

Girls and Their Monsters: The Genain Quadruplets and the Making of Madness in America

by Audrey Clare Farley

NONFICTION

The subjects of the book are quadruplet sisters who begin their lives as Shirley Temple-esque child stars and end up suffering from the same mental illness later in life. I really appreciated how the author handled the story thoughtfully and with respect for what the women went through.

Cheyenne Riley – Bethel Branch

A Darker Shade of Magic

by V.E. Schwab

FANTASY

A perfect fantasy read, centering on a main character who has magic and the ability to travel through secret doorways that lead to four different versions of London. This is the first book in one of my all-time favorite series: Shades of Magic.

Morgan Malyn – Goshen Branch

Good Bad Girl

by Alice Feeney

FICTION

I really liked this twisty curvy story.

Jenni Longbrake – Union Township Branch

FAVORITE AUTHORS NOW Club

Don't worry about watching for new books by some of your favorite bestselling authors any more. Let the Library do it for you. The Favorite Authors Now (FAN) Club is the ultimate in convenience for avid readers. During the 12-month pilot program, the Library will place holds on new titles. Simply choose your favorite authors listed on the Club's registration form and choose regular or large print, if available. Holds will be placed in your name on new books when they are purchased by the Library. You will be notified as normal. While we can't guarantee how near the top you'll be, we can guarantee you will always be added to the lists. We pay attention to when new books are released which means you don't have to!

Unfortunately, this service is not available for digital books.

To join, simply fill out the online form (bit.ly/3N2bMsc) to select from the list of bestselling authors or scan the QR code.
